HARVARD DINNER COMMITTEE NAMED

First Wednesday in February Chosen as Date For Banquet.

A committee to arrange for the Harvard dinner to be given in Washington the first Wednesday in February was chosen at the monthly meeting of the Washington Harvard Club, held in the University Club rooms last night.

The members of the committee are W. D. Davidge, P. Hall, W. Hitt, T. Abbe, and E. S. Thurston. Elaborate plans will be made for the dinner, and judging from the committee, it will be one of the successes of the season.

The members of the club sent a message of regret to President Edward Lander, class of '35, because of his illness, and included in it words of sympathy and best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Prof. Daniel W. Shea, '36, delivered a lecture, choosing as his subject "Electricity."

Music was furnished throughout the evening and refreshments were served.
